

What healthcare packages does TXH offer?

We offer various types of Health Packages:

Comprehensive Health Packages

1. Cardiac
2. Nephrological
3. Gastroenterological
4. Neurological
5. Urology Specific

Executive Health Check-Ups

Age Specific Packages

Gender Specific Packages

Where can I access the current packages offered by TX Hospitals?

All our health offers and health packages are advertised on our website.

How do I book an appointment for the package?

Please call our Help Line numbers 040 66529999 (Banjara Hills) 040-48108108 (Kachiguda) 040-43108108 (Uppal) to book a package.

How can I access the tariff list for admission and procedures of TXH?

You can call us and speak to our financial counseling team for any kind of assistance on the hospital tariffs:

040 66529999 (Banjara Hills)

040-48108108 (Kachiguda)

040-43108108 (Uppal)

Do TX Hospitals offer health care education?

TX Hospitals intends to serve society in more ways than one. Apart from offering healthcare services, we also have a healthcare education channel that offers healthcare education and tips on various diseases and conditions.

Where can I access TX Hospitals educational information?

Please visit our website to access our healthcare educational content.

Where will I find the list of doctors/consultants empaneled with TX Hospitals?

All information including the credentials, timings, and photographs of our Consultants/Doctors is available under "Our Team" on our website.

How far is your organization branched?

TX Hospitals is one of the fastest-growing healthcare chains of Telangana. We have 3 branches at strategic locations in Hyderabad - Uppal, Kachiguda, Banjara Hills.

Do you have video consultation option?

Though we encourage patients to visit the facility for a comprehensive consult, we do offer video consultation to patients who are stable and not acutely ill. Please call our helpline for scheduling your appointment.

How can I get the hospital brochure?

The brochure is available for download on the TX Hospitals website.

How do I make an appointment online?

Please visit our website for online appointment

Can I walk in without an appointment for consultation?

Yes, you can, but we always recommend taking an appointment prior so that your waiting time can be minimized despite high outpatient volumes.

What is the average time that I have to wait to receive my lab reports?

The average time to receive lab reports varies depending on the specific tests conducted. Please consult with our laboratory staff for estimated turnaround times for your specific tests.

Is there a 2 and 4-wheeler parking facility available at TXH?

Yes, we have a spacious parking area and valet service available.

Is my personal information and online data secure and confidential?

Yes, we keep your information utmost confidential

Is the website available in another/local language?

No, our website is available only in English. We do have a future plan to bring it in Telugu.

Will someone guide me if I don't know English or the local language?

Yes, we have translators who will help you in making you understand every information that our hospital would like to know from you or you would like to know from us.

Is there any facility that enables payable transport to the hospital?

Yes, you can reach us at 040-48108108 (Kachiguda), 040-43108108 (Uppal), 040 66529999 (Banjara Hills) and request/book an ambulance for service.

Can I use your transport to another healthcare facility in case of emergencies?

We provide ambulance service for pick up of patient from your residence/hospital to our hospital and dropping from our hospital to your residence. In case, if any service is not available at our hospital, we do provide ambulance service to the recommended facility as per your choice.

Whom can I contact if I have any additional queries?

During hospital stay, a patient relationship executive will resolve all your concerns & if it is prior to hospitalization, all your queries will be answered by the telecaller.

How old should a person be to register online? Can the parent/next of kin register their child/elderly parent or relative respectively, access their results on their behalf?

If you are above 18 years of age, then you are legally authorized to register. Anyone below 18 years of age will require a guardian for any process.

Can I book my room from home, in case of a planned treatment/surgery?

In case of an elective surgery, you can visit the hospital as per consultant's instructions. A room will be blocked for you as per schedule.

Do you provide hospice services?

We do not provide hospice services, but we surely can guide you as we have an MOU with few organizations which provide hospice services.

Do you have any special discounts for Sr citizens, on services that are not part of any package?

Yes, we offer discount to senior citizens

Can I use my Medclaim at TXH?

Yes, TX Hospitals is empaneled with many insurance companies and TPAs. Please check our empanelment list on our website or contact our insurance help desk for specific queries.